

Your School is Participating in the ASVAB CEP

Raise Awareness

FOR STUDENTS:

- Post about your school's ASVAB CEP participation on social media. Use the sharable graphics available here: asvabprogram.com/option-ready
- Distribute the ASVAB CEP Overview Guide
- Display ASVAB CEP posters in the cafeteria, classrooms, and counselors office announcing key dates and encouraging sign up. Everything you need is available here: asvabprogram.com/option-ready
- Encourage students to visit asvabprogram.com/student-program
  - Take a 40-item sample ASVAB test
  - Learn test-taking strategies
  - View podcasts and planning resources in the Media Center

FOR PARENTS:

- Direct parents to visit the 'Parents' tab at asvabprogram.com
- Distribute some articles for parents. (find articles here: asvabprogram.com/media-center-article-list/2)
- Make available copies of "Overview Guide" (PDF version: asvabprogram.com/pdf/ASVAB\_CEP\_Overview\_2018.pdf)
- Provide a "parent letter" listing the benefits of student participation in the ASVAB CEP (find a template here: asvabprogram.com/option-ready)
- Invite parents to ask questions and/or attend the post-test interpretation

FOR EDUCATORS:

- Encourage staff to visit the 'Educators' tab at asvabprogram.com; where they can gain access to planning activities and the resources available in the Media Center
- Schedule a Post-Test Interpretation
- Distribute the post-test handout to any students who do not receive a post-test interpretation.
- Use the ASVAB CEP planning tools to motivate students to continue actively planning their future
